Image Formats

This example shows how images with alternative texts are rendered without any additional styling, with the default settings.

Add CSS for styling the images, although the width and height attriutes are also supported.

Compart supports many different image formats. The Compart module IFF is used for image handling. Please see the MFFIFF Filter documentation for more information on supported image formats.

You can specify the images using absolute or relative file paths or http(s) URLs.
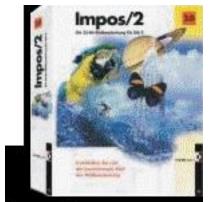

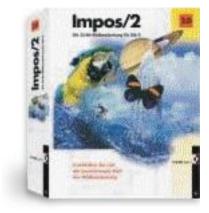

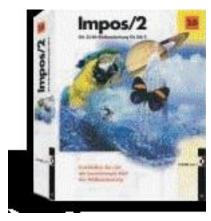

BMP

GIF

HEIF

JP2

JPG

PNG

TGA

TIF

WEBP